Editor's notes: RC Sproul was one of the founders of RTS Orlando, as well as the its first dean. Also of interest, Ed Stetzer is currently filling in for Erwin Lutzer at Moody Memorial Church – and Mr. Stetzer is a friend of Joel and Erwin. Concerning at very least.

Article on RTS, and RC Sproul in the founding of RTS Orlando

“... Undoubtedly, one of the most dramatic developments in the history of RTS was the establishment of a campus in Orlando, spurred by the offer of $20 million from two donors in response to the vision of becoming an institution of national prominence and influence. In 1989, two years after their offer and the eventual withdrawal of it, RTS opened a small campus in the Maitland Center Commons in 1989, becoming the first accredited Protestant seminary in Florida.. A stellar faculty included RC Sproul, Richard Pratt, and Roger Nicole. They were soon joined by Elmer Smick, Charles MacKenzie, Ron Nash and others. John Muether is the only remaining member of that original faculty. Life was never the same again...”

WEA Welcomes Dr. Joel Hunter to the North American Council (2006)

“The World Evangelical Alliance (WEA) welcomes Dr. Joel C. Hunter, senior pastor of Northland Church in Orlando, Fla. as the newest member to the Alliance’s North American Council.

“I am thrilled to see Dr. Hunter join our North American Council. As a senior pastor of one of the leading churches in the U.S. he brings great wisdom and expertise to our board,” Geoff Tunnicliffe, the WEA International Director said.

“The North American Council consists of members from the WEA International Council, the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada (EFC) and the National Association of Evangelicals (NAE). Dr. Hunter, an NAE board member, said he hopes to become a bridge between the NAE and WEA through his new commission.

“I am honored to be joining the North American Council of the World Evangelical Alliance,” said Dr. Hunter. “Part of my role is to be a liaison between the boards of the National Association of Evangelicals and the World Evangelical Alliance. I have such great respect for the leadership of [NAE president] Ted Haggard and of [WEA] Geoff Tunnicliffe, and can only imagine the potential of these two great organizations working more closely together...”

Biography - Dr. Joel C. Hunter

“... A respected leader in the evangelical community, he serves on the board of the World Evangelical Alliance (420 million constituents) and the National Association of Evangelicals (30 million members). Dr. Hunter recently declined an offer to become the president of the Christian Coalition when the group could not embrace his vision to expand their political agenda to include compassion issues.

Dr. Hunter is also partnering with other groups to accomplish common goals. He is working with respected members of the scientific community to call attention to human-caused threats to the environment. Additionally, as a delegate to the US-Islamic World Forum held in Doha, he is seeking to build a dialog between Muslim and Christian communities. Grist magazine named him among the top 15 religious environmental leaders in the world, along with the Pope and the Dali Lama...”

New Yorker bio for Joel Hunter:

“...Dr. Joel C. Hunter, the senior pastor of Northland church in Orlando, Florida, who every week preaches to ten thousand people in his church and through the Internet, is one of the new leaders. Long active in community affairs, he has become an activist on the national level. He has lobbied Congress for legislation to curb global warming, pressed for comprehensive immigration reform, and denounced the virulent anti-immigrant rhetoric of the Republican primaries. He has worked with a group of evangelicals and secular progressives to try to establish common ground on such polarizing issues as abortion and the role of religion in public life. “I think the way we have been dealing with differences in this country simply doesn’t work,” Hunter told me recently. He is on the board of the National Association of Evangelicals, and with his fellow-members he has condemned Bush Administration policies permitting torture and the inhumane treatment of detainees. He has also twice attended the U.S.-Islamic World Forum, an annual gathering of American and Muslim leaders in Qatar, sponsored by the Brookings Institution. After the first meeting, where Hunter discovered that even the American diplomats assumed that all evangelicals believed that Israel had a Biblical right to the Palestinian territories, he and eighty-three colleagues sent an open letter to President Bush, calling for a two-state solution and justice for both the Israelis and the Palestinians. The statement was “hardly revolutionary,” Hunter said, with a grin, “but it was subversive,” meaning subversive of the religious right...”

Some of Joel’s latest projects

“... In 2007, Hunter was among more than two dozen scientific and evangelical leaders who met secretly at a retreat in Thomasville, Ga., to draft a joint statement calling for immediate action on so-called climate change.

After that meeting, Hunter worked with a group, Conservation International, to draft a tool kit titled "Creation Care: An Introduction for Busy Pastors" to send to evangelical leaders.

They produced a package of Bible passages and information on scientific findings to promote action on "climate change."

He is part of a group of evangelicals and progressives who organize under the auspices of the left-leaning "Third Way" organization. There, he helped draft a new position paper, "Come Let Us Reason Together: A Fresh Look at Shared Cultural Values Between Progressives and Evangelicals," that calls for common ground on abortion, same sex marriage, and stem cell research, among other social issues.

"Third Way" is an ideology first promoted as an alternative to free markets by Mikhail Gorbachev after the collapse of the Soviet Empire. The "Third Way" of governing would be neither capitalist nor communist, but something in between.

George Soros has been a major proponent of "Third Way" economic policy.

Besides reaching out to progressives, Hunter has led multiple initiatives on U.S.-Islamic outreach.

He was a delegate to the recent U.S.-Islamic World Forum held in Doha, Qatar, seeking to build a dialogue between Muslim and Christian communities.

He has spoken at numerous interfaith forums, including a 2009 Georgetown University panel, "A Common Word: Religious Pluralism in the 21st Century..."

Making sense of the pieces of the puzzle

Editor's Notes: So, after a good bit of info about Joel and his connections, etc, most of this will not quite make sense to honest American citizens, that is - unless and until we look at Joel's connections to names you and I know – yes you will recognize some of these. Let's start first with this article.

Joel joined US top leaders to sign an interfaith document.

“Washington, D.C.—More than 150 American Christian leaders from across ecumenical lines are issuing a call to action in response to a crisis facing ancient faith communities...

“Signers include National Association of Evangelicals President Leith Anderson, Southern Baptist Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission President Russell D. Moore, Archbishop of Washington Cardinal Donald Wuerl, Sojourners’ Jim Wallis, Episcopal Church Presiding Bishop Katherine Jefferts Schori, Anglican Church in North America Archbishop Robert Duncan, United Methodist Bishops Ken Carter of Florida & Mark Webb of Upper New York, United Theological Seminary President Wendy Deichmann (United Methodist), Southern Baptist Theological Seminary President Al Mohler, Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America Metropolitan Methodios of Boston, Focus on the Family President Jim Daly, Focus on the Family Founder James Dobson, Beeson Divinity School Dean Timothy George, Samaritan’s Purse President Franklin Graham, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary President Dennis Hollinger, Willow Creek Pastor Bill Hybels, Northland Church Pastor Joel Hunter, National Religious Broadcasters President Jerry Johnson, Family Research Council President Tony Perkins, Prison Fellowship Ministries President Jim Liske and Institute on Religion & Democracy President Mark Tooley.”

Editor's Notes:

So... let me get this straight: What brought these individuals together? An interfaith document signing in 2014? Really!?! It's just a little shocking to see in black and white that Joel Hunter was joining:

Russell Moore,

Cardinal Wuerl,

Sojourner's Jim Wallis,

Episcopal Bishop Schori,

Anglican Archbishop Duncan,

United Methodist Bishops,

Al Mohler of the SBC,

Greek Orthodox leader,

Jim Daly and James Dobson,

Beeson Divinity's Timothy George,

Franklin Graham,
Gordon-Conwell's president,
Willow Creek's own Bill Hybels,
NRB's Jerry Johnson,
Tony Perkins,
Prison Fellowship's (Colson) Jim Liske,
And NAE's Leith Anderson.

But, I'm sure that none of these people actually know each other, right? No, they do. Clearly, there is more agreement than they all admit, while they pretend to be honest "Christian leaders". Surprised? There's more.

Joel Hunter and RC Sproul have been long-time friends here in Orlando – they were both professors for a while at RTS, though Joel was just a visiting professor and RC was the dean of the Orlando campus. And even after RC Sproul "left" RTS (Reformed Theological Seminary), he never cut ties. Very recently, when RC Sproul opened his new "Ligonier Academy", he made sure to form a warm agreement with RTS to make way for students to graduate from his "academy" and go right into RTS.

"RTS has a long relationship with R.C. Sproul since he taught for many years at the Jackson campus and was the first academic dean at the Orlando campus," said Dr. Robert C. "Ric" Cannada, Chancellor and CEO. "This agreement between RTS and Ligonier is a natural one and it will better equip Pastors for greater service in the Kingdom of God in our generation."

Editor's Notes:

And Joel Hunter and RC Sproul also know each other through Rockefeller's Gordon College and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary connections. RC Sproul doesn't explain what he was teaching at Gordon College or Conwell School of Theology (before it was Gordon-Conwell, separate from Gordon College). RC Sproul did teach for two years at Gordon College, and then 3+ years at Conwell School of Theology (before it was Gordon-Conwell, yet separate from Gordon College). Then RC Sproul was a "visiting professor" of Apologetics at Gordon-Conwell (after the name change) from 1971 to 1981 = 10 years. Joel Hunter has some sort of direct friendship with Gordon-Conwell's president, who has signed 2 of his "open-letters" to the government on various subjects.

The letter to GW Bush led by Joel Hunter asking GW Bush/Scherff to take land from Israel and give it to the Arabs. The presidents of Gordon College and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary (both Rockefeller direct-controlled) – These documents were signed by both presidents. Joel also was by joined faculty from the Rockefeller’s Gordon-Conwell and Gordon College, as well as a senior fellow from Jesuit Georgetown, as well as a physicist/administrator from IBM, as well as Jack Hayford, Tim Keller, Os Guinness, Andy Crouch, Catherine Crouch, and NT Wright (church of England) – all together for a “workshop” for a ecumenical one-world government agenda with an organization called “BioLogos Foundation”.

Joel Hunter is partner with other major “evangelical” false teachers such as Rick Warren and TD Jakes. But, that’s no surprise, because Al Mohler and Russell Moore are also good friends with false teacher Rick Warren as well. And yes, Joel is also connected to Ted Haggard too.

“... Back in my NAE days, I knew Joel and Rick. They are both sincere, wonderful believers with ministries that are admired. I also knew some of the parents of the kids who took their lives here in Colorado Springs. Good families...”

In Conclusion, Mr. Joel C. Hunter has been caught as a false teacher for several decades, but that has not stopped him from making alliances with other evil false teachers – all while they try to look like “scholarly” men for God. No. It’s surprising how many of these evil people are all working together. But, no surprise – the ones who are the most corrupt are the same ones who have a 501c3 and peddle God’s Word for lots of profit.

Stay alert. Study God’s Word and double-check all people, especially those who claim to be “religious” leaders. ~ Watching, Preaching, Praying, the FEDBP team.

P.S.

You can find more key things that prove that Joel C. Hunter is indeed a false teacher and a wolf in our report from 2009
